SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE REPORT

The President Has Issued No Ultimatum—Muster Rolls Have Been Ordered To Be Printed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 2—The sub committee of the senate committee on foreign affairs appointed to draft a report and prepare a form of resolutions outlining the course of action which this government shall pursue in reference to Cuba have come to a conclusion and will report to the full committee.

They will recommend the adoption of a resolution declaring in the first place for the recognition of the Cuban republic, and in the second place for the intervention of the United States with her army and navy for the purpose of assisting Cuba to secure independence in case Spain refuses to concede it.

The committee will treat the rescinding order for concentration of the Cuban non-combatants as a subterfuge and will dwell upon the past if not the present treatment of the unfortunates and will describe the Maine disaster, representing it as sufficient cause for declaring war if this country is desirous of making it such. It will also touch upon the injury to American interests caused by the Cuban struggle as full justification for our interference.

THROWS BLAME ON CUBANS.

Washington, Apr. 2—The Spanish minister has given out a statement, the purport of which is to connect the Cubans with the Maine disaster.

SENATOR PRESTON'S VIEWS.

New York, April 2—Senator Preston, who recently told in a speech of the the wretched condition of the reconcentrados says, that Cuban independence should be immediately recognized; that our coast defense is strong and that our navy is better than Spain's.

HOPEFUL BUT NOT SANGUINE.

Washington, April 2—Congress has recovered somewhat from the excitement which almost carried that body off its feet. The diplomatic issue has been made up and the president will now submit the whole facts in the Cuban case to Congress.

It seems improbable that the ultimatum will go with Spain although the president has not given up all hope of peace. Leaders who have been in consultation with Mr. McKinley today say he is hopeful but not sanguine and that there is yet another chance for peace.

NAVY SECURES MORE VESSELS.

Washington, Apr. 2—Six additional vessels for naval service have been bought or arrangements made for this purpose by the navy department out of the fifty million dollar emergency fund.

M'KINLEY WILL ANSWER TODAY.

Washington, Apr. 2—McKinley will send his answer to Spain today. His reply will be brief and ominous, stating by inference that the only course left for the United States is war. The president will inform Guillon through Minister Woodford that the reply of the Spanish government has been received and submitted to Congress for their consideration. McKinley will devote today and tomorrow in the preparation of his message which will not be sent to congress before Tuesday or Wednesday.

It is understood that in the event of war the French ambassador at Washington will protect Spain's interests here and the French embassador at Madrid will protect American interests in Spain.

NAVAL CADETS ORDERED TO DUTY.

Annapolis, April 2—The members of the first class of the naval academy, who otherwise would have graduted in June, were today detached and ordered to ships of various fleets.

SHIPMENTS OF AMMUNITION.

All the shipments are consigned south presumably to the flying squadron at Hampton Roads and to the vessel at Key West. Any information concerning destination of consignments denied The Texas is now painted a slate color and has been repaired and is ready for service at any day.

REPORT OF WOODFORD'S RECALL.

Washington, April 2—A report is current that Woodford has been recalled. No cabinet officer knew anything in regard to it at 10 o'clock this morning. The report is discredited.

MEETING OF BOARD OF STRATEGY.

Washington, April 2—A meeting of the Naval board of st gy was hastily called this mornin consider the arrival of the Spanis illa at Porto Rica.

ASSEMBLING OF REVENUE CUTTERS.

Washington, April 2—The navy department today issued orders for the revenue cutters to rendezvous at Norfolk by Monday. The Windom and Manning, two cutters that are on the great lakes, have been ordered to proceed via the St. Lawrence canal and report at Nortolk.

MUSTER ROLLS ORDERED.

Washington, April 2—Capt. Jacob Miller, commander of the state naval reserves, conferred with Assistant Secretary Roosevelt in regard to signal service along the coast. The war department has just ordered muster rolls from the government printing office. It is rumored that the first troops to be mustered in will be the national guard along the sea coast. The navy yard has been closed to visitors.

THESE WANT NO WAR.

Washington, April 2—Peace-at-any-price politicians are urging congressmen, senators, and constituents to avoid war.

NO ULTIMATUM YET.

Washington, April 2—McKinley has not issued any ultimatum but simply notified Spain that her answer is unsatisfactory.

PRESIDENT HOLDS CONSULTATION.

Washington, Apr. 2.—Three members of the cabinet, Long, Alger and Gage, together with Assistant Secretary Day and various party leaders, are in consultation with the president. The conference has been in session over two hours.

FOOTING UP ORDERS.

Washington, April 2—The navy department went to work today footing up the orders that have been issued. No informatiou in regard to movements of Spain or of their offensive or defensive operations has been given to the public. Officers not in active service have been ordered to be in readiness. Several officers in private conservation say they expect guns to be booming within a week.

Wire Market Purchased.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Governor Black Recalled.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

"Wang" Monday Night.

"Wang" with a large company of sixty people and two carloads of scenery, drops and properties comes for one night only and its farewell visit here next Monday night, April 4th, at the Academy of Music.

Among the novel features of the much talked about comic opera "Wang" are a banjo chorus rendered by ten of the cleverest and prettiest girls in the company; a quaint and taking chorus of nursery rhymes given by several charming little tots, none of whom is over seven years old; a Siamese wedding ceremony reproduced accurately in every detail; a real steam launch and a royal barge floating among French men of war at anchor in the harbor of Bangkok; and a really wonderful elephant, whose method of getting rid of a four gallon glass of beer is a mystery to the audience.

Jolly Juniors.

The Jolly Juniors Cycle Club met and organized last evening. Officers elected were: Mary Stewart, president, Irving Eldridge, treasurer, Edney Ridge, captain. Colors adopted blue and white. Weekly club runs Thursdays.

BY "SEMI-OFFICIAL NOTICE."

We Learn There is No Allusion to Cuban Independence.

WITH OR WITHOUT INDEMNITY.

Spanish Boats Vizcaya and Oquendo Go to Join the Torpedo Flotilla at Porto Rico.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Madrid, April 2—A semi-official notice given out today states that McKinley did not insist on the freedom of Cuba. It further states that no proposal containing the slightest allusion to Cuban independence, with or without indemnity, was made to Spain and had there been such a proposal Spain would have rejected it immediately. That there is no party or politician in Spain who is in favor of such a solution.

El Imparcial likens our war ships to sham soldiers of comedy.

NOTICE IN SPANISH PAPERS.

Madrid, April, 2—A semi-official notice published in today's papers is to effect that one of the most immoral devices that could be put in operation was the presumption that Spain would be disposed to recognize Cuba in return for indemnity.

TO JOIN THE FLOTILLA.

Key West, April 2—The Dispatch boats that followed the two cruisers, Vizcaya and Oquendo, report that they go to join the flotilla at Porto Rico.

FLOTILLA ARRIVES AT PORTO RICO.

London, April 2—The official cables announce that the Spanish flotilla has arrived at Porto Rico.

NOT AT PORTO RICO.

Madrid, April 2—The Spanish flotilla is at Cape De Verde Islands and not at Porto Rico as reported.

ROYAL FAMILY AFRAID.

Berlin, April 2—The German Ambassador reports that the Spanish Royal family fears an outbreak unless the difference with the United States is adjusted.

Butler on Caldwell.

Washington, April 1—When Senator Butler was asked today what he thought of Railroad Commissioner Caldwell's vote to restore passenger rate he said: "I was astonished at his action and deeply regret it. Mr. Caldwell's statement that he was forced to vote to restore the old rates because no one advanced argument to refute the statement made by the railroads is untolerable and absurd, first and above all the commission is a court of inquiry. They are given power to examine the books of the railroads; nobody else is given that power and therefore they alone are in position to ascertain the facts. It is the duty of the commission to ascertain the facts and not sit idle and render a decision on a partisan and ex parte statement." Congresman Fowler thus expressed himself: "I have nothing to say, Commissioner Caldwell's conversion seems to have been both suddenly and radical. I am willing to leave the genuineness of it to be passed upon by his conscience and the voters of the State."

New Insurance Company.

A newly organized insurance company, the Underwriters, of Goldsboro, with home office at Greensboro, yesterday applied to the Secretary of State for license to do business in North Carolina. The officers of this company are: J. Van Lindley, president; E. P. Wharton, first vice-president, and A. W. McAlister, secretary. The amount of authorized capital stock is $240,000; of this, $73,400 has been subscribed for and $33,950 paid up in cash.—News-Observer.

A Volunteer Company.

S. B. Spruill, of this town, is trying to organize a company of volunteers to go to Cuba or any other place their country may need them.

Mr. Spruill is an ex-Confederate soldier and hopes to get at least an half a hundred of his old comrades to join him in the defense of the Stars and Stripes. His patriotism and sympathy has been fully aroused by the situation in Cuba. He has notified the governor that he is now ready to be called on.—Roanoke Beacon.

Bicycle Drill.

The members of the bicycle drill and those interested in its success, will please attend a very important meeting in the Farmer's Warehouse tonight at eight o'clock promptly.

SEABOARD WILL NOT STOP.

But Will Continue to Issue Passes to Newspapers.

The Southern Railway yesterday discontinued advertising relations with the newspapers of the State, and no further passes will be issued correspondents or passes on account of advertising.

It is possible that the Southern may enter into contracts with the press for advertising space, and in return for the value of such space mileage passes will be given.

The Southern will ascertain first what the other railways in the State propose to do.

The Seaboard Air Line has decided to continue the issuance of passes to the press. The passes will be quarterly, and will be good over their system in Virginia and North Carolina. It is said that the issuance of passes in this manner will be protected from State interference by the Interstate Commission law.

The Southern has ordered the newspapers in the State in which it advertises to discontinue its advertisements in consequence of the ruling of the Railway Commission.—Morning Post.

The Mt. Gilead Extension.

Prof. J. M. Bandy returned to the city last night and will spend Sunday with his family. He has made a preliminary survey of the Aberdeen and Ashboro railway from Troy to Mt. Gilead, a distance of thirteen and eight-tenth miles. The professor says this branch will penetrate an exceptionally fine timbered section. He will return Monday to complete his work preparatory to letting the grading to contractors.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanstory had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstory sent the old lenses with an explanation to the occulist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following;

SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1898.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

It will be noted that with the best speed newspapers can put on the crisis still remains three laps ahead.

Taking her cue from our method of sending supplies to the reconcentrados Spain may send her reply to McKinley's ultimatum on a fleet of warships.

Senor Moret stood on tip toe a day or more ago and declared: "We are still Spaniards." Yet up to the present time there has been no rush to wrest the title from the Senor.

Judging by the number of departures that are daily chronicled, if a fair percentage arrive safely, Cuban waters should soon be as full of Spanish torpedo boats as a stagnant pool is of "wiggle-tails" in summertime.

Premier Sagasta's declaration that Spain will not "tolerate any attack upon her honor" would seem to indicate a belief on the part of the premier that the United States is given to chasing chimeras.

With the Spanish torpedo flotilla only a few hours run away from our fleet it is not very reassuring to be told that in the mimic battle off Key West the torpedo boats had so decidedly the better of it. It is possible that after all a mistake was made in not looking more carefully after the mosquito wing of the fleet.

"After upward of a half-century of active political life, which is naturally exhaustive of the vitality of the most robust of men, I find the quietude of the office of secretary of state an agreeable change."—Secretary Sherman.

If any doubt remained in the public mind as to Secretary Sherman's condition this declaration may be presumed to have settled it. The honorable secretary does not even seem to be aware that there is such a thing as trouble in the world.

Governor Russell since his induction into office seems to have been pursued by a strange fatality. Among his political enemies those who know the governor best declare that he has been honest and sincere in his attempts to benefit the state. However that may be, he has been frustrated at every point either by the men he has chosen or by the measures he has taken to bring about the desired ends. He attempted to annul the lease of the North Carolina railroad and after a vexatious course the attempt proved abortive. He removed two of the railroad commissioners in order to secure a reduction in passenger rates only to find that one of his new appointees had betrayed him. He attempted to lease the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad and the only fruit was a good deal of criticism and abuse that was, perhaps, for the most part undeserved. His Excellency seems to be a blunderer by nature. He has blundered in his appointments, he has blundered in his official policy. No man perhaps ever did more poorly who meant to do as well. From his inauguration to the present time his career can only be characterized as unfortunate.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

Most of the April magazines in covers and contents have a breath of the first fresh days of springtime. In the current Scribner's appears the first instalment of Richard Harding Davis' much advertised "The King's Jackal." This will be a serial in four parts with a petty king and a woman and a monk and other not very wonderful things. Walter A. Wyckoff has a new instalment of "The Workers"—strong, vivid, bitter in its unornamental revelations of the struggles of the unemployed against the rigors of winter and the hard conditions that confront them. "Arbutus," a poem, by Frank Dempster Sherman has all the delicate fragrance of the flower itself. "A Legend of Welly Legrave," a story of the Canadian wilderness is full of that strange, wierd fascination, a fascination of loveliness, perhaps, which has been made familiar to us chiefly through the stories of Gilbert Parker, "Red Rock" Thomas Nelson Page's reconstruction romance, loses none of its early charm.

***

Charles Lowe, in April McClure, gives a brief history of the world-famous Gordon Highlanders. W. A. Fraser contributes "King for a Day," a story of India, which is not up to Kipling's "Man Who Would be King," though it is interesting enough. "The Day of the Dog" is a sea story, by Morgan Robertson. Anthony Hope, who cawn't endure America, doncherknow, has two more chapters of his strenuously exciting Rupfert of Hentzau with the usual amount of tinsel heroics and impossible incidents. Charles A. Dana's War Reminiscences still continue.

***

One of the most finely illustrated magazines of the month is the Pall Mall. There is an artistic tone about it that is to be found in few of the magazines. Among the contributions is a curious and instructive paper on the evolution of the railway car in England. A delightfully humorous and entertaining story is "King William," the leading characters being Irish. Why is it, by the way, that in these days when every corner of the earth is being utilized as a background for short stories that Ireland has escaped so well? Let us at least be thankful that no Hibernian S. R. Crockett has arisen to molest or make afraid.

***

Richard Le Galliennes's "Romance of Zion Chapell" is out.

***

Maeterlink's new book of essays is to be published under the title of Wisdom and Destiny.

***

Kipling's next volume of stories is to be published in the fall.

***

Arthur Waugh's Legend of the Wheel, soon to appear, will contain parodies of authors, both classical and modern.

***

E. W. Kemble has illustrated Paul Laurance Dunbar's Afro-American prose attempt, Folks from Dixie.

***

A new work by Tolstoi is soon to be published simultaneously in Russian and English. It will previously appear in a Russian magazine.

***

Stopford Brooke is compiling an Anthology of Irish Poety.

***

A posthumous work of the late Sir Richard F. Burton is shortly to be published as the Jew, the Gipsy and El Islam.

***

Professor Brander Matthews has completed a new novel of New York life, to appear serially in Harpers's Bazaar, as A Confident Tomorrow.

***

The interesting story of his adventures in Tibet, entitled Towards Lhassa, which A. Henry Savage Landor has been contributing to the London Daily Mail, is to be published in book form.

***

The book of fiction in preparation by Ian Maclaren will consist of a series of stories of self sacrifice, some of which appeared in McClure's Magazine about two years ago. Afterward was the first of these.

***

Jerome K. Jerome's new book will be a volume of essays somewhat in the style of his Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow.

J. M. Barrie is making steady progress on The Celebrated Tommy.

Southern Pines Prosperity.

Some idea of the growth and prosperity of Southern Pines and Pinehurst can be obtained from the fact that the freight and passenger receipts at Southern Pines are over $60,000 a year. A few years ago it was not $60 a year.—News and Observer.

SURRENDED HIS PENSION.

A Pennsylvania Veteran Whose Health Has Been Restored.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 1—John E. Miller, a workingman of Altoona, who was a member of Colonel Davis' Bucks county regiment, the one hundred and fourth Pennsylvania, has sent his pension certificate for $12 a month to Representative Hicks, with a request that it be turned over to the commissioner of pensions and cancelled.

Mr. Miller applied for a pension last year, when his health seemed to have broken down. Since then he has regained strength, and, being able to work as well as ever, says he feels it would be robbing the government to take the pension money any longer.

HESTER'S COTTON REPORT.

A Decrease in the Visible Supply of the World.

New Orleans, April 1—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton shows an increase during the week just closed of 155,458 bales, against decrease last year of 166,241, and a decrease of 135,910 in 1895. The total visible is 3,928,884, against 4,084,342 last week, and 3,309,120 last year.

Of this the total American cotton is 3,682,884, against 3,808,340 last week, 2,940,820 last year, and all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 246,000. against 276,000 last week, and 368,300 last year.

Classes That Never Came.

The students of Wake Forest college went on a strike yesterday. After attending prayers in the chapel in the morning, as is the daily custom, the professors went to their respective recitation rooms to meet their classes.

The students disappeared in a remarkably brief space of time after prayers, but none of them put in appearance at the recitation room. The professors waited in their recitation rooms for several hours, before the thought occurred to them that the day of the month was April 1st.

The boys gained a holiday and enjoyed the merriment and sport at the expense of their instructors, but some of the more timid students are wondering now what action the faculty will take at their next meeting.—Morning Post.

Mecklenburg Chapter.

To be a dweller in Mecklenburg county, N. C., since the days of the Revolution has been deemed sufficient credential for all that was valorous, so the women of the historic town of Charlotte were late in joining the Daughters of the American Revolution. At last, however, a chapter has been formed, and the regent is none other than Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, who is a resident of Charlotte now. It is known as the Mecklenburg Chapter and promises to be one of the most interesting in the State.—Danville Register.

NO REOPENING OF ZOLA'S CASE.

Probable Compromise to Keep the Dreyfus Scandal Quiet.

Paris. Apr. 1—The Court of Cassation today began hearing the appeal of Emile Zola against the sentence of one year's imprisonment and $600 fine, imposed upon him on February 23, after he had been convicted of making libelous charges against the conduct of the Esterhazy court-martial. Councillor Chambareaud, who was appointed to examine the arguments, reported in favor of M. Zola's plea, that his trial had been irregular, because the suit wai brought by the Minister of War instead of the president of the court-martial which M. Zola had libelled.

If the court, as is probable, accepts M. Chambareaud's report, the case will not be retired. The condemnation will remain, but the sentence will not be executed. This result is believed to be acceptable to the government, as it is hoped it will stop the agitation on the subject of the Dreyfus sentence.

Washington, March 31—In the senate today Mr. Pritchard. and in the house, Mr. Skinner presented several petitions, numerously signed, asking that the seacost of North Carolina be supplied with adequade defense in case of hostilities.

For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. MR. BRYAN'S VIEWS.

Says the Time for the United States to Act Has Come.

Lincoln, Neb., March 31—Hon. W. J. Bryan tonight made the following statement for the Associated Press, in answer to the question whether in his judgment the time had arrived for the United States to intervene in behalf of Cuba and bring the war to an end:

"Yes, the time for intervention has arrived. Humanity demands that we shall act. Cuba lies almost within sight of our shores and the suffering of her people cannot be ignored unless we, as a nation, have become so engrossed in money making as to be indifferent to distress.'

"Intervention may be accompanied by danger and expense, but existence cannot be separated from responsibility, and responsibility sometimes leads a nation as well as individal into danger. A neighbor must sometimes incur danger for a neighbor, and a friend for a friend.

"War is a terrible thing and cannot be defended except as a means to an end, and yet it is some times the only means by which a necessary end can be secured. The State punishes its own citizens by imprisonment or even death when counsel and persuasion fail. War is the final arbitrator between nations when reason and diplomacy do not avail.

"Spain might not resist intervention: it is to be hoped that she will recognize the right of the United States to act and immediately withdraw from Cuba, but whether she resents the intervention or not, the United States must perform a plain duty.

"Spain has only herself to blame for the state of affairs in Cuba. If she denies to her former subjects the rights of war and calls the Cuban army a mob, let her remember the words of Victor Hugo: 'The mob is the human-race is misery.' No nation can afford to make its people miserable.

"If the Cubans prefer death to Spanish rule, it must be because Spanish rule has robbed life of joy and hope. If a nation sows the wind it must reap the whirlwind"

JOHN EVANS HANGED.

Died Protesting His Innocence of the Crime for Which He Suffered.

Rockingham, N. C. April 1—John Evans was executed in rear of the jail this morning at 8:40, by the sheriff. He met death without fear, protesting to the end his innocence of the crime. His neck was not broken, but he died of asphixiation.

Sewall Still Loyal to Bryan.

Hon. Arthur Sewall, candidate for the vice-presidency on the democratic ticket in 1896, is a guest at the Arlington. Mr. Sewall is still a believer in the doctrines enunciated in the Chicago platform, but it is understood that he will never again figure in the arena of national politics, as he sees that the probable conditions in 1900 will demand a differently constructed ticket from that launched at Chicago. He is loyal yet to his former running mate, and will give him his heartiesties support in the event of a re-nomination.—Washington Post.

Kipling on Coast Defenses.

This is the way Rudyard Kipling regarded our coast defenses a few years ago: "The big, fat Republic is afraid of nothing because nothing up to the present time has happened to make her afraid. She is as unprotected as a jelly fish—not internally, of course. It would be madness for any power to throw men into America; they would simply die; but so far as regards coast defense, from five miles out at sea a ship of the power of the British ship Collingwood could wipe out every town from San Francisco to Long Branch, and three first-class ironclads would account for New York, Bartholdi statue and all. Reflect on this; it would be pay up or go up, around the entire coast of the United States."

Reception to the Normal Girls.

The reception given last night at the First Presbyterian church in honor of the young ladies of the Normal who attend that church, was greatly enjoyed by the large number present. From 8 to 11 the lecture room and auditorium was crowded with girls from the Normal, the congregation and their friends. Everyone reports a most pleasant evening and very reluctant were they to leave. A very dainty lunch was served in the ladies' parlor by the ladies of the church. The lunch room was beautifully festooned in the college colors of white and gold. The Brockmann orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

A Pretty Drug Store.

Howard Gardner has recently enlarged and re-arranged his drugstore on the corner, opposite the postoffice. The old prescrition case has been removed and a large and splendid equipped laboratory made in the rear of the main store room. The front room is much larger, enabling Mr. Gardner to make a more tasteful and elaborate display of his large stock of goods. We wish for the popular young druggist continued and increased success. He is better prepared than ever to carry on a first class drug business.

A Gifted Man.

All who heard Prof. E. Livingston Barbour last evening at the Opera House, in his interpretation of the leading characters of David Copperfield, came away delighted. It was quite a treat to all lovers of this popular story, and so well was each character handled and so life-like that the real persons seemed to be talking. No elocutionist has ever appeared before a Durham audience who was so well received and gave as much pleasure. He is professor of oratory in Rutgers College, New Brunswick, New Jersey. —Durham Sun.

A student plied a college professor with a series of questions to each of which the professor laconically replied "I don't know."

"Why," finally said the student, "I thought we were sent here for you to tell us what we don't know."

"Young man," replied the professor you are sent here for us to tell you what we know, and that is soon done. To tell you what you don't know would be an endless undertaking.

—o—

It is somewhat that way in writing advertisements, we can soon tell you what we know, or can think of, that will interest you; but if you should come down and look through you will find an endless variety of useful articles that you had no idea that we kept in stock.

Did you seen the exhibit of the Universal Food Chopper a few days ago? It is a most wonderful machine. It will do as many things as a magician can perform tricks. You would be surprised to see the tricks it will do It chops beefsteak, grinds coffee, crackers, and in fact anything you can get in it, except horse shoes, lamp chimneys and the like.
